

admin - Wed, 1/22/2014 - 11:48

Private foundations are subject to a variety of special tax laws that restrict their behavior. These rules are known collectively as the private foundation rules. These rules include prohibitions against self-dealing, jeopardy investments, and certain expenditures, as well as governing instrument requirements.

Print

Categories

Definitions - General Gift Planning