

admin - Wed, 1/22/2014 - 10:58

An outright gift is an irrevocable transfer from a donor to a charity of securities, real estate, tangible personal property, or other assets in which the donor receives nothing of value from the charity in return. The donor earns an income tax deduction equal to the fair market value of the assets donated, subject to IRS 30%/50% limitations.

Print

Categories

Definitions - General Gift Planning