

admin - Tue, 1/14/2014 - 14:32

The states that require charities to report annually on the sufficiency of their gift annuity reserves have maximum interest rates that they allow to be used in the reserve calculation. The maximum interest rate allowed by a particular state depends on the state, the year of gift, and in some cases the number of years a gift's payments were deferred.

Print

Categories

Charitable Gift Annuity